PRAYERS NEEDED

Pray that Betty Barabasz gets good news from her new doctor.

Karen Grace is still in need of our prayers.

Pray for Barbara Barrett's son-in-law Ray who has cancer, and both of her daughters, who have Lupus..

Attendance:

Barbara Barrett, Marilyn Baxter, Joan Davern, Sue Downing, Kim Giesing, Karen Grace, Joanne Guercio, Carol and Gene Cramer, Paul and Diane Krause, John Lukasik, Jerry Maragliano, Bob Pagels, Ray Smith, Wayne & Mary Ann Tahara, Jan Tooke, Barbara Tucker.

• Youth of Year letters sent out - so we're ready to roll.

Braggin' Bucks: $5 from Karen Grace last week - sorry for the mistake.

Joanne Guercio happy to donate $1 for the safe return of her son after a 100-day business trip to the Philippines.

$1 Marilyn Baxter because she's trying to find out who Gloria Baxter is.

Wayne Tahara gave a very clear talk about the Darkness to Light and training facilitators. Training is $500 for each but it's a great child abuse prevention program and the Buffalo Club is hoping to have 30 who would reach out to even more.

LOTTERY: Marilyn: Reported 317 tickets sold, three winners this week. Joan Davern presented Marilyn with a gift to make her days "easier" — a cocktail glass that lights up in different colors. Perfect place for a manhattan!

Nite at the Races, March 10:

Large and small flyers, $10 admission tickets and $5 raffle tickets for 2 pair of Sabres tickets, 100 level seats are available along with sponsor sheets.

Diane Krause is already collecting raffle baskets, so bring in any you have. Bob Pagels brought in a basket from the TT Senior Center - Nice going, Bob. Get ready for fun.

- Split club: Collected $34, $8.50 to Jerry Maragliano.
- Breakfast: Sue Downing.

Insights into Kenmore

Ed Adamczyk, the official historian for the Village of Kenmore presented a fun and informative talk on his work. He explained the research he does for people who ask about their heritage or even their homes. Ed has a master's degree in history and after having worked in industry for many years, is now happier that he's ever been and, in his words, "turning into the guy I always wanted to be." He's been a resident in Kenmore since 1978 and talked about the many landmarks and businesses that were once in the village. He invited members to call him for an appointment to see the village museum on Knoche Road, a former church, which is filled with hundreds of photos and historical items.

A very interesting program.
